AT NEKNAMPUR, ALKAPUR TOWNSHIP

MAKE THE MOST OF LIFE!

tamarind

Behold the tamarind tree – so tall and faithful, so sacred and sublime. An inseparable part of India's life and landscape, the tamarind is steeped in mythology and medicine, culinary adventures and childhood nostalgia. It brings back the flavours of a pure, beautiful life.

For us, this evocative tree is the inspiration for a green sanctuary crafted for those who consider their home to be an emotion. Step into THE TAMARIND.

EVERY BIT A TANGY TWIST

The tamarind tree has an abiding presence, whether it's in the way it shelters people from the rain or gives you a shady retreat from the sun. And yes, every part of it is a piece of goodness. From the hardwood that is used to make furniture to the fruits that make the tastebuds tingle, from the pods that feed livestock to the roots that strengthen the soil - the Tamarind means different things to different people.

Feels like home, doesn't it?

THOUGHTFUL DESIGN & WHOLESOME LIVING

Every corner of The Tamarind is bathed in a divine glow, every nook has a story to tell. It's rare to find an address that gives you awesome indoor living, aesthetic outdoors, great activity options, and an all set you free clubhouse under one blue sky.

EVOLVE

WHEN THE
ARCHITECTURE
IS INSPIRATIONAL

The stunning facade of the tower is a tribute to strength, longevity and beauty – all the attributes that exemplify the trunk of a tamarind tree. We believe that like this auspicious tree, the architecture is as much about values as it is about the visual imagery. Welcome to your nurturing home.
